The city council met last evening with F. M. Handley, president of the council, in the chair. On roll call, Messrs. The city clerk read some bills which, on motion of Councilman Smith, were referred to the proper committee. An appropriation for miscellaneous purposes was read and carried unanimously. IN HONOR OF REV. SHIPPEN Mrs. Carter Entertained Last Evening in Her Spacious Apartments.

The reception given last evening by Mrs. L. S. Carter in her spacious apartments in the Sedgwick block in honor of Rev. Eugene R. Shippen, who was formerly the Unitarian minister in this city, was largely attended by the friends of their former pastor. There were probably between 200 and 300 guests present throughout the evening. The large halls were utilized by Mrs. Carter and were made homelike by rugs being arranged in graceful disarrangement. In the halls the mandolin club dispensed music throughout the evening which helped to make the hours pass all too quickly. Mr. S. W. Cooper and Rev. Shippen sang some comic songs which were greatly ap. at Gouda Springs. preciated by the guests, and were loudly applauded. Conversation was the principal enlivenment of the evening. The reception was one of the most successful ever given in the city and was highly complimentary to Rev. Shippen's popularity.

SLOT MILLS ARE NO SIN. Springfield, Mo., July 26.-Judge Mc-Afee in his charge to the grand jury today held that slot machines are not gambling devices and intimated that any such indictments brought about by the Ministers' Alliance, which is pushing a crusade against the machines, would be quashed. Judge McAfee also scored the city council for creating a current expense bond instead of paying as they go. He thought, he said, that it was a case worthy of indictment. The jury was also charged to investigate alleged illegal expenditures of the county court funds.

USED AN AXE WHILE DRUNK. Greensburg, Pa., July 26.-Herminie, a little mining village at the terminus of the Hempfield branch, was the scene yesterday morning of what will in all probability prove a double murder. James Parter and John Hyde, two of the striking miners, were visiting Robert Rodgers, who is employed in the Ocean mines at Herminie. Saturday night they drank neavily and soon became dead drunk. They all lay in a stupor until yesterday morning, when Hye awoke, and getting an old axe, which was in the room, proceded to use it upon his two sleeping companions. He struck Rodgers on the head, fracturing his skull. He then attacked Porter, fracturing his skull, besides making a terrible gash in his neck. The injuries of both men will likely prove fatal. Hyde is in jail.

The number of whites has probably been more than doubled since then, however, as the Alaskan gold fever set in in mild form three or four years ego. One would hardly think of going to Alaska for the social advantages of the place.
